Model/Digital Content Creator

Galina was scouted in her hometown in the Ukraine at the age of 17 and thanks to her unique look a prosperous modelling career quickly emerged.

She's always had an eye for styling and her exquisite taste of fashion enabled her to grow her Instagram following rapidly alongside modelling.

Her true passion, however, has always been floristry. She cleverly used the financial opportunity modelling offered her as well as her already existing Social Media platform to kickstart the opening of her own floral & event design studio in Kiev, Delina.

Sadly, due to the war Galina has been forced to temporarily relocate to London and put her business on hold. Obstacles aside, she is grateful to be able to use her platform to create awareness of the political situation, and has never stopped creating content as a creative outlet for herself.
